

TOS NEWS | April 18, 2013

Professor Jack Barth selected as TOS Fellow

We would like to congratulate Professor Jack Barth of Oregon State University as being selected as the newest Fellow of The Oceanography Society! The citation on Dr. Barth's certificate recognizes his contributions and sustained leadership in all aspects of continental shelf oceanography, and for his commitment to community service. Dr. Barth will be formally recognized during the Ocean Sciences Meeting, February 23 - 28, 2014 in Honolulu, Hawaii. For more information about the Fellows program, click here.

Paul G. Allen Ocean Challenge: Mitigating Acidification Impacts

The first webinar to field questions about Ocean Challenge was hosted by TOS on April 15th. The recording of the webinar is available by clicking here. The next webinar is scheduled for May 15th at 4 pm EDT and you may click here to register for that event. Responses to questions raised during webinars will be posted in the FAQs section of the Ocean Challenge Submission site. All concept submissions are due July 31, 2013.

Oceanography* Magazine

The March issue of Oceanography magazine was delivered to all members (except those who have selected E-delivery only) over the last few weeks. Please click here to see a preview of topics for the next several issues.